

1. Adjust Your Attitude!

Many teens think they are invulnerable. A cocky attitude for inexperienced drivers. Don't drive when

2. Slow Down!

Driving too fast for the conditions or in excess of the posted speed limit is the second most common factor

3. Buckle Up!

Seat belts are one of your best defences against serious injury or death in a collision. 63% of teens killed

4. Limit Distractions!

Distractions or lack of attention behind the wheel is the fourth leading factor in teen fatalities. Distraction

4. Best Friend Protection: In the form of people. Your best friend, boyfriend or girlfriend may be

5. Defensive Driving: Don't realize they are tailgating. The best defensive driving programs in the n

7. Limit Night Driving: occur between the hours of 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. In some States in Ame

8. Two Hands on the Wheel: One hand on the wheel during a race because they know they ca

9. Teenagers are more likely to be involved in a crash than adults, shouldn't they be driving the

10. Does not Alcohol Kill Teens? were intoxicated. 77% of the teens who died in those c

11. Anatomy of a Teen Crash.

Click here